Demand signal		3/10

*Realistic upside assumes filling one third of your open nights at your current rate — a conservative scenario, not a promise; open nights may include dates you have deliberately blocked. How we scored: everything above comes from your live public listing — the 3-month availability calendar, photo set, title, description and review signals, captured on the date on the cover. Scores weight what guests see first when deciding to click: title and cover photo, then photos, then copy. No third-party estimates are used. Demand signal reflects how much of your next 90 days is already booked — steady bookings mean demand exists and presentation, not location, is the constraint. Where the diagnosis cites your review count, that's the listing's own public review total at capture (a new listing starts at zero even when the host profile has reviews).

What's holding you back

- 1 Price mismatch: nightly rate £169 is 61% above the Sheffield median (£104) while 90-day occupancy is only 64% (32 open nights), indicating price may be suppressing bookings.
- 2 Title is generic — “Charlesworth's” scores 2/10; replace it with keyword-rich, differentiating copy to improve search visibility.
- 3 Cover photo does not highlight the standout view; reorder images so the valley view lounge image leads, then kitchen, bedrooms, and outdoor spaces.

Your description, rewritten

Charlesworth's sits on the edge of the Peak District, just a short drive from Sheffield, giving guests the best of both city convenience and countryside serenity. The upside-down layout places the lounge at the front to capture breathtaking valley and mountain vistas. Inside, the bright, airy kitchen boasts integrated dishwasher, fridge, freezer and granite worktops, while the large dining table comfortably seats ten.

The lounge offers leather seating for six, a 43-inch smart TV and direct views of the surrounding hills. A boot-room with sink and washer lets you stash dogs for up to four hours. Bedroom 1 features a king-size bed, en-suite with an extra-long bath, a 43-inch TV and a dressing room with full-length mirror.

Bedroom 2 provides another king-size bed and wardrobe. Bedroom 3 holds two single beds and a chest of drawers. The main bathroom mirrors the en-suite with an extra-long bath and heated towel radiator.

Under the stairs, a spacious workspace with desk is perfect for remote work. Families, contractors and dogs are warmly welcomed, and the property includes essential comforts such as hot water, hairdryer, cleaning products, iron, extra pillows, board games, a travel cot, high chair and baby safety gates. Outdoor enthusiasts will love nearby country walks, pubs, Stanage and Bamford climbing edges, and 'Le Tour' cycling routes, while city attractions like Chatsworth House, Buxton, the Crucible and Tramlines Festival are within easy reach.

Amenity gaps guests filter for

- Exterior security cameras (guest safety)
- Tumble dryer (convenient laundry option)
- Carbon monoxide alarm (essential safety device)

Use the living-room shot that shows the panoramic valley view and leather seating as the cover photo—it instantly showcases the unique view and spacious comfort.
