WHY IT'S SITTING EMPTY

- Occupancy is only 38% booked for the next 90 days (56 open nights) despite a nightly rate 45% below the cohort median (£85 vs £154.60) - run targeted promotions and dynamic pricing to capture price-sensitive demand.
- No amenities are listed, missing high-value categories like outdoor space, parking, and entertainment - add and highlight these to increase perceived value and attract more bookings.
- The current title does not mention the 45% price advantage; rewrite the title to feature this differentiator and improve SEO, which can boost click-through rates.
