WHY IT'S SITTING EMPTY

- With 52 open nights in the next 90 days, there's a potential revenue loss of £5,668 (£109/night x 52 nights) if occupancy isn't improved.
- The listing's nightly rate of £109 is only +4% higher than the cohort median of £104.90, indicating a potential opportunity to increase pricing or improve occupancy to match the market.
- The listing has 26 photos, exceeding the median photo count of 23, but the quality and order of photos could be optimized to better showcase the apartment's best features.
